POISONED BY MILK.—At Frankfort, Lettie, Emma and Elizabeth Suppinger, aged six, seven and ten years, respectively, children of Lambert Suppinger, and Mrs. Louise Neff, of Augusta, a relative visiting them, and daughter, Lillie, aged nine, and the Rev. Edwin Kagin, a young minister, were poisoned Wednesday from drinking milk. Dr. J.
S. Demaree administered an emetic, and they were restored in a much emaciated and exhausted condition. An investigation showed that those who drank from the milk had been seized, while other members of the family who ate at the same table were not taken sick.
